

FLOCK

Presented by We Are Stems Ltd.

Ten speakers. Ten people. Ten stems of audio.

Anything can happen.

Time for a weird walkabout...

FLOCK

With a lightweight, portable speaker strapped to their back, each Flock participant plays a role in performing a piece of specially commissioned music.

The music is mixed to ten channels and each of these is played through one of the backpack speakers – the experience is then in the hands, or on the backs, of the participants.

Every performance is an interaction of music, participants and audience.

BOOK FLOCK FOR YOUR NEXT EVENT

We have worked with several composers to date on pieces ranging from DnB to punjabi as well as sonic soundscapes that use the speakers for audio installations.

We are currently commissioning some choreography so that we'll be able to offer both a standalone choreographed piece of work as well opportunities for the public to take part in their own Flock experience.

PRODUCTION DETAILS:

WE ARE STEMS

We are dedicated to the creation of interactive audio events in unusual, hidden and forgotten spaces, creating temporary societies of unlikely cohorts.

All our projects use multi-source audio systems and new technologies which can be used by any group, regardless of age or ability.

We believe that developing enjoyable and engaging audio experiences can foster interaction across groups, and we hope to close the social distances engendered by pervasive mobile phone use, cultural segregation, enforced isolation and anxiety.

In the future we aim to create events which include history and locality as shared experiences which can be celebrated as a foundational part of who we are.

As well as Flock we have several other audio formats that we can share with you and we're up for collaboration – that's where the real fun stuff happens.
